Job Summary

Assist in attending to the basic first aid, medication, and paperwork needs in regard to the health of the participants and staff for the assigned NYLT session. Respond to emergencies as needed or requested anywhere at NYLT. Maintain medication and health logs and paperwork as required. National Standards set the requirements for the Health Aid position.

Job Description

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Be well-versed in both general medical and “emergency” situations.
- Feel comfortable working with youth in a camp environment.
- Takes responsibility for all medication for youth (anyone under 18) at camp. Administers medication, maintains logs, and helps maintain inventory of OTC medication in the NYLT Health Lodge.
- Performs First Aid on campers and staff. Logs all care provided. Is available at all times for any medical needs that come up.
- Inform the MSR Health Officer about campers or staff who carry life-saving medication(s) and those who may present a risk for injury or illness.
- Inform the MSR Health Officer when any campers or staff members are sent off camp for any reason.
- Responds to needs for medical around camp. The primary role is to assist with NYLT, however in certain situations may be asked to help the Ranch Health Staff.
- Calls the MSR Health Officer if assistance is needed, for major injuries or medical needs and emergencies.
- Conducts a medical re-check for every participant and staff member upon check-in at camp.
- Be familiar with and direct the camp emergency procedures as directed by the MSR Ranch Director as needed.
- Coordinate and inform the MSR Ranch Director and NYLT Course Director of all issues while on site. Assist with investigations and response as needed. Report issues with participants and staff immediately.
- If you have any questions, you must work with the NYLT Council Coordinator and the MPV Health Staff to get the answers.
- Assist in cleaning camp areas and buildings. This includes removing trash, cleaning restrooms and showers, and making sure the Health Lodge is ready for the next program.
- Other duties as assigned.
